

CHRE's / LEARN – u LEARN meeting series
PROGRAMME: 17 March 2010
Venue: The Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole
Street, London, W1G 0AE

09:30	Tea/coffee, pastries/or breakfast scones
10:00	Introduction/opening the event	Jill Pitkeathley – Chair, CHRE's Council
10:05	The regulation jig-saw: making a whole picture from several smaller pieces	Rachael de Souza - CHRE
10.30	Auditing initial stages of fitness to practise	Michael Andrews - CHRE
<hr/>
11.00	Break
11.15	Case studies for discussion	Michael Andrews - CHRE
11:30	Syndicate groups give feedback
	How the work of the professional regulator assures patient safety
12.15	GDC's quality assurance and protecting patients	Paul Feeney - GDC
12.35	Do you know we're here?	Margaret Coats - GCC
12.55	Quiz on regulation/lunch
1.40	Quiz results	Kate Webb - CHRE
1.45	How the views of patients and the public inform our policy work (Presentation)	Kate Webb - CHRE
2.05	Working with the views of patients and the public	Kate Webb - CHRE
2.25	Syndicate groups deliver feedback
<hr/>
3.05	How can we improve our external publications and website?	Rachael de Souza - CHRE
3.25	Syndicate groups give feedback
3.55	Panel discussion on regulation	Barbara Wood (Panel Chair)
4.30	Council member closes the event, after which tea, coffee and biscuits are served.

Note: GDC – The General Dental Council
GCC – The General Chiropractic Council
Barbara Wood is the ex Chair of the Royal Medical Colleges PPI Group and the ex Chair of the BMA patient/lay group