

CHRE's / LEARN – u LEARN meeting series
PROGRAMME: 1 March 2010
Venue: The Royal Society, London, 6 – 9 Carlton
House Terrace,
London SW1Y 5AG

09:30	Tea/coffee, pastries/or breakfast scones
10:00	Introduction/opening the event	Andrew Hind – CHRE's Council member
10:05	The regulation jig-saw: making a whole picture from several smaller pieces	Rachael de Souza - CHRE
10.30	Auditing initial stages of fitness to practise	Tim Bailey - CHRE
<hr/>
11.00	Break
11.15	Case studies for discussion	Tim Bailey - CHRE
11:30	Syndicate groups give feedback
	How the work of the professional regulator assures patient safety
12.15	Closer working with employers	Anna Rowland - GMC
12.35	Standards and registration	Roger Thompson - NMC
12.55	Quiz on regulation/lunch
1.40	Quiz results	Douglas Bilton - CHRE
1.45	How the views of patients and the public inform our policy work (Presentation)	Douglas Bilton - CHRE
2.05	Working with the views of patients and the public	Douglas Bilton - CHRE
2.25	Syndicate groups deliver feedback
<hr/>
3.05	How can we improve our external publications and website?	Rachael de Souza - CHRE
3.25	Syndicate groups give feedback
3.55	Panel discussion on regulation	Jeremy Taylor (Panel Chair)
4.30	Council member closes the event, after which tea, coffee and biscuits are served.

Note: GMC – The General Medical Council
NMC – The Nursing and Midwifery Council
Jeremy Taylor is the Chief Executive at National Voices